Steak 48

As evidenced by other recent steakhouse openings, like GT Prime, RPM Steak and STK, this genre has a natural proclivity for sex appeal. The latest splashy addition, Steak 48, is no different. While much of the food adheres to timeworn tradition, the bi-level space is more contemporary, with a sleek palette of white, gray and brown providing an elegant foundation for much of the space. There's also an outdoor patio, equipped with fire pits and a series of cozy nooks for romantic dining.
