HIT LIST: New Restaurants On the Scene

New spots open in the city all the time. This summer was no exception. Three notable openings have menus centered on exceptional and unique meat and seafood fare. Add these new restaurants to your list of places to check out.

STEAK 48

This is not your average steak joint, this sleek modern space features a second floor patio with firepits and open kitchen. While steak takes center stage, seafood features are not to be overlooked. Must try: Top your steak with lobster sautéed with black truffles.
